Virginia Conflict of Interest and Ethics Advisory Council

MEMORANDUM

TO: Council Members

FROM: Chris Piper, Executive Director

DATE: December 10, 2015

RE: Update on Filing Deadline Extensions

At the Council's meeting on September 28, 2015, former Chair Judge Felton and Council Member Henderson requested staff review the provisions in the law that allow for the extension of filing deadlines in certain circumstances. Below is what we found in our review, and staff recommends Council consider recommending legislation in its annual report to address the deficiencies in the law.

Within the State and Local Government Conflict of Interests Act, the General Assembly Conflicts of Interests Act, and the statutes governing lobbyist registration and disclosure forms, there are deadlines set by which filers must submit their respective required forms.¹

There are two statutes that can be used in cases of emergency to excuse filers from their deadlines, but they are far from comprehensive.² If the Council's office is closed for a state holiday or for the weekend, the filing deadline can be moved to the next business day.³ Lobbyists can be excused from their penalties for filing late if they provide a statement proving that a tardy filing was beyond their control.⁴ However, these exceptions do not provide for circumstances such as technical failures, extreme personal circumstances, or a state of emergency. Therefore, the Council staff recommends that the language in § 24.2-946.4 of the Campaign Finance Disclosure Act of 2006 be considered for developing specific exemptions with regard to deadlines for filing disclosures with the Council. Including such

¹ §§ 2.2-422, 2.2-426, 2.2-3114, 2.2-3115, 2.2-3116, and 30-110

² §§ 1-210 and 2.2-431

³ § 1-210

⁴ § 2.2-431

provisions in the Code would provide the Council the authority to extend deadlines in a variety of situations, preventing unnecessary penalties for legitimate delayed filings.

§ 24.2-946.4. Right to grant extensions in special circumstances.

A. The State Board shall provide instructions to filers for delivery of campaign finance reports within the time periods prescribed by law.

B. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any candidate or treasurer required to file a report pursuant to this chapter shall be entitled to a 72-hour extension of the filing deadline if his spouse, parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, or sibling died within the 72 hours before the deadline. The State Board or the general registrar shall be authorized to grant an extension of the filing deadline for a period not to exceed five days for good cause shown by the filer and found by the Board or registrar sufficient to justify the granting of the extension.

C. The Commissioner of Elections shall have additional authority to extend a deadline established in this chapter for filing reports in emergency situations that interfere with the timely filing of reports. The extension shall be limited in scope to the areas and times affected by the emergency. The provisions of this subsection shall be applicable only in the case of an emergency declared by the Governor pursuant to Chapter 3.2 (§ 44-146.13 et seq.) of Title 44 or declared by the President of the United States and confirmed by the Governor by executive order as an emergency for the purposes of this subsection.

D. The Commissioner of Elections shall have additional authority to extend a deadline established in this chapter for filing reports for a reasonable period for a candidate who serves as his own campaign treasurer and who is a member of a uniformed service of the United States called to active duty during a reporting period.

E. The State Board shall have authority to extend any deadline applicable to reports required to be filed by computer or electronic means in the event of a failure of the computer or electronic filing system that prevents timely filing. The extension shall not exceed a period of up to five days after restoration of the filing system to operating order.

F. The State Board shall have authority also to grant extensions as provided in §§ 24.2-503 and 24.2-948.3.
